2022 ANNUAL MEETING MINUTES

Utah-Idaho Southern Baptist Convention
Annual Meeting Minutes
October 28, 2022

Session 1 – Opening of Annual Meeting

Moderator Jared Jenkins (President of UISBC and pastor of Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT) called to order the 58th Annual Meeting of the Utah-Idaho Southern Baptist Convention (UISBC).

Jared Jenkins asked for a motion to seat the messengers.

Amber Harden (Salmon Valley Baptist Church, Salmon ID) made a motion to seat the 107 registered messengers. Another messenger seconded. There were no questions. Jared Jenkins called for a vote. Motion was approved.

Jared Jenkins welcomed everyone and prayed to open the meeting.

Jared Jenkins called up Ron Clement (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT), the chair of the Resolutions Committee. He explained the process of submitting the resolutions to the messengers.

Jared called up Michael Cooper (The Point Church, Kearns UT), the chair of the Credentials committee, and he reported on and listed the new churches to the convention. He began by thanking the hard work of his team in examining petitioning churches and then explained the process of bringing the churches into the convention. He listed the churches added to the convention this year: Awaken City Church (Herriman UT), Exalt Church (Nampa ID), Gospel Peace Church (Logan UT), HopeValley Church (West Jordan UT), Iglesia Baptista El Calvario (Idaho Falls ID), Mosaic Church (Provo UT), Pioneer Community Church (Eagle Mountain UT), Redemption Hill Church (Eagle Mountain UT), South Fork Outdoorsmen Church (Rigby UT), The Gathering Place (Roy UT). This concluded his report.

Jared Jenkins then invited Tono Rodriguez to lead the convention in worship. After singing, he prayed and welcomed national partners to the meeting and called on each to deliver their report.

Reports

Gateway

Dr. Adam Groza (Gateway Seminary) presented his report. He thanked the churches of the UISBC for giving to the cooperative program so that the seminary can train future ministers. It is because of the giving of the Cooperative Program that the majority of students graduated without debt. This year the seminary is scheduled to graduate its 11,000th student. He noted how grateful he is that the seminary has a teaching site in Salt Lake City through the Salt Lake School of Theology. The campuses and fully online degrees mean that students can stay in ministry as they study. He reiterated his gratitude for the work of the churches of the UISBC.

Lifeway

Through video, Ben Mandrell of Lifeway, reported about what is going on at that organization. He noted that churches and Lifeway are facing challenges, but despite that it is becoming a national and international company. Selling property allowed them to recover cash reserves for new projects, including their Next Gen curriculum. This curriculum is meant to help churches seeking to reach people. Lifeway is also seeking to increase Study Bibles in different languages, especially in India. Ken Braddy, Lifeway Christian Resources representative, came to give a report and greetings from Lifeway following the video. He said that Lifeway is seeking to adapt to the needs of the times. They are working hard to make sure churches have the resources that they need. He spoke on their partnership with authors embedded in foreign contexts in order to make new material for other languages. Lifeway has also run camps for students. Decisions of faith and equipping of students took place at these camps. He noted that churches are ordering more resources as the pandemic has let up. The new curriculum that Lifeway is developing is meant for reaching those who do not have much familiarity with the Bible. The CSB has now been out for 5 years and has a 10% market share. It is now the 3rd best selling Bible translation. In regard to VBS over 20,000 churches used the most recent Lifeway VBS material. Lifeway trainers are back in churches to equip churches. The new Lifeway building, in Brentwood TN, is under construction and will be finished this spring.

GuideStone

Dr. D. Hance Dilbeck of GuideStone reported through video of all that is going on at GuideStone and how this organization is helping Southern Baptists. He noted that Guidestone is focused on helping take care of SBC pastors in regard to retirement, life benefits, disability, and insurance for church staff and property. It also noted that Mission:Dignity provides help to retired ministers in need. Hoon Im was in person and introduced himself, shared his testimony with emphasis on the role of the Cooperative Program, and offered his assistance to churches within the UISBC.

NAMB

Kevin Ezell of NAMB reported via video. He discussed how NAMB is grateful for how pastors lead churches to give toward NAMB efforts. It is because churches give that NAMB is able to equip pastors to reach north America. There are 20 Send Relief Organizations in the country, with 3 new centers. He noted how NAMB Sends Relief during times of disaster in order to meet physical needs and share the gospel. Giving also allows NAMB to plant churches. 735 new churches were planted this year, with 9,400 new churches planted since 2010. NAMB also hosts pastor wellness retreats and encouraged pastors to participate.

Dave Howeth, Mountain West Regional Director of Send Network, spoke after the video and he reiterated that NAMB does not plant churches but churches plant churches. He said that 68.9 million dollars were raised through the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering and this money goes directly into the field to reach North America, and this is needed because North America is the fourth largest mission field globally. Over 80% of the churches planted since 2010 are still alive today. He said that starting in January of 2023, any planter who has been endorsed since 2019 can get one year of medical benefits and also get started with a GuideStone account. He noted that we are on pace that by 2040 over half of the churches of SBC will have been planted in 2015 or after.

ERLC

Brent Leatherwood, president of the ERLC, shared via video what the ERLC is doing and how the organization can help churches within the SBC. He reiterated that the ERLC belongs to the churches of the SBC and it serves to inform SBC churches and speak for SBC churches. The ERLC aims to speak with a thoroughly Baptist voice. He said that he is on a listening tour to hear from churches so that the ERLC will be aligned with SBC churches. The goal of this is to address the feedback from SBC churches. He said that the ERLC will be a Baptist witness in the public square, with many updates coming. He asked churches to sign up for email updates to stay aware of what the ERLC is doing.

IMB

Dr. Paul Chitwood, president of the IMB, reported via video. Dr. Chitwood said that we are cooperating to address the greatest problem: spiritual lostness. Lostness is a problem because people are facing eternal separation from God in hell. God has provided a solution to this problem: the gospel. Southern Baptists, from the beginning, have worked together to bring the gospel to the lost of the nations. 92% of IMB missionaries work among the unreached. 500,000 people heard the gospel and 176,000 confessed faith, and 107,000 were baptized. The IMB has taken a strong stand against sexual abuse and is working to protect the children of missionaries. He encouraged churches to look at the IMB website to see how they are addressing the threat of abuse. He also noted the rebranding of the IMB logo. The IMB had a decade of decline in sending missionaries, but last year was the best financial year in the history of the IMB and this year looks to be better, as they are running 14% ahead of last year's giving. Over 1,000 people are in the sending pipeline. He also noted that the number of people dying without Christ is currently at 157,690 every day. This shows us the urgency of reaching the lost. He told the churches that we came together to reach the lost and we should stay together to reach the lost.

Ron and Lisa Jones, retired IMB missionaries, spoke in person to the convention about IMB work. They served for 27 years on the field because churches enabled them to do it through giving and prayer. They noted that $203 million was raised for the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. They reiterated that the IMB is the mechanism of the SBC to reach the lost with the gospel by sending missionaries to be physically present with the lost so that every tribe, people, and language can receive Christ. They also explained the reasoning and symbolism behind the new IMB logo. They also challenged churches to pray for missionaries by name, increase giving to Lottie Moon, and to go to the mission field. While much has been done, more needs to be done in order to reach the lost.

First Convention Message

Jared Jenkins led the convention in wake up stretches and then invited Roger Naylor (1st VP and pastor of FBC, Bonners Ferry ID) to speak to the convention on Ephesians 4:1-7. He exhorted the messengers in regard to our common salvation in Christ. He then closed in prayer.

Jared thanked Roger for the message and then dismissed for a break.

Second Convention Message

After the break, Roger Naylor called for order and invited Tono Rodriguez to lead in worship. After worship, Roger Naylor invited Dave Carver (2nd VP and pastor of Water's Edge Fellowship, Burley ID) to give the second convention message on Matthew 28:18-20. From that text and from 2 Corinthians 5:11-21, Dave Carver spoke of A Common Task that we have as a convention of churches, which is to make disciples. He closed in prayer.

Business Session 1

After the second convention message, Roger Naylor thanked Dave Carver and opened Business Session 1. He outlined how the committee reports would be made and how each should be handled.

Constitution Committee

Mike Pless (Redeeming Life Church, Bountiful UT) reported for the Constitution Committee. He thanked his committee members. He shared that the President asked the committee to review the resolution process. The committee reviewed national convention process and how other state conventions considered resolutions. They came up with a recommendation that was forwarded to pastors of the convention churches. The proposed change reads thus:

"Resolutions of courtesy should originate from the Resolutions Committee.

The Resolutions Committee shall consider the appropriateness of each resolution presenting all appropriate resolutions to the Convention at the designated time.

Other than resolutions of courtesy, the Resolutions Committee is under no obligation to present any resolution received from a messenger and/or representative or to initiate resolutions except as exercising their own prerogative as a messenger and representative of their church.

In order to facilitate thorough consideration and to expedite the Committee's work, all proposed resolutions shall:

1. Be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions for review and consideration at least 30 days before the scheduled annual meeting.
2. Be addressed to the Committee on Resolutions in care of the UISBC at its registered mailing or e-mail address (electronic copies are preferred),
3. Be concise, typewritten, titled, and dated,
4. Be accompanied by a letter from a church qualified to send a messenger to the annual meeting of the UISBC certifying that the person submitting the resolution is a member in good standing,
5. Include complete contact information for both the person submitting it, and his or her church.

A proposed resolution:

1. Should be pertinent and relevant to the mission and ministry of the UISBC and its churches and relate specifically to matters which can be addressed locally by the cooperating churches of the UISBC.
2. Should avoid repetition. If a proposed resolution is similar to a previously passed resolution, the new resolution must contain a clear statement on how the proposal is new or different than previous resolutions.
3. Will not be considered which is in any way an attack against any person or entity and the resolution will not contain personal references.
4. Should be positive in nature and seek to build up the cooperating churches of the UISBC.

The Committee on Resolutions shall prepare and submit to each annual meeting of the Convention only such resolutions the Committee recommends for adoption. Such resolutions may be based upon proposals received by the Committee or may originate with the Committee.

For resolution proposals rejected by the Committee, the Committee will contact the presenter and give their reasoning for declining the resolution proposal. Only resolutions recommended by the Committee may be considered by the Convention."

Roger Naylor called for questions. Zach Thompson (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT). He asked if there was a provision to accept resolutions that were submitted 29 days before the convention. Mike Pless answered that the resolution would need to simply be submitted next year. Jared Jenkins also answered that this was to make the work of the Resolutions Committee easier.

Don Straka (Table Rock, Boise ID) offered a suggestion. He requested that the Resolutions Committee also provide the coming Resolutions to the entire convention 5 days before the annual meeting so that messengers could review the resolutions before the meeting. Mike Pless said this was a good idea and that it would be up to the Resolutions Committee for action.

Joshua Shirey (NorthStar Baptist Church, Hayden ID) offered the following amendments.

1) change 1.1 to "Be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions for review and consideration at least 48 hours before the scheduled annual meeting is scheduled to begin"
2) Under section two, change the text to "Should generally be pertinent and relevant to the mission and ministry of the UISBC and its churches and relate generally to matters which can be addressed locally by the cooperating churches of the UISBC, the UISBC Staff, or Executive Committee of the UISBC, and may also call upon entities or persons outside to UISBC to take action(s) that will promote the success of the mission of the UISBC.
3) Strike points 2-4 under section two.

Bryan Catherman (Redeeming Life Church, Bountiful UT) called a point of order. He wanted to know if the motion garnered a second if there would need to be a mass vote on all suggested changes or a vote on each individual suggestion. Jared Jenkins answered that there would need to be a vote on each item individually.

The motion was then seconded. Joshua Shirey then spoke to each amendment in the following way: he argued that the time allotted for resolutions cuts off resolutions too soon. Speaking against, Rob Lee (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT) saying that resolutions could still be made but they would have to originate from the committee. Zach Thompson (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT) spoke in favor, saying that this would allow other churches to offer resolutions instead of simply allotting it to a few messengers on the committee. Jared Jenkins (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT) spoke against, saying that the Resolutions Committee is made up of messengers and could be asked by other members to introduce a new resolution. Terry McIlvain (Redeeming Life Church, Bountiful UT) asked if the Constitution Committee is the same as the Resolution Committee. Roger Naylor (FBC Bonners Ferry, ID) said that they are two different committees. Dennis Haines, (Falls Baptist Church, Idaho Falls ID) said that he thinks the churches should be able to introduce a resolution without having to go through the resolution committee. Mike Pless answered that the Resolutions Committee can always respond or make new resolutions within the 30 days. He added that the point of the change in this recommendation is to give the Resolutions Committee more time to do a better job of presenting resolutions.

Roger Naylor called for a vote by raised hand. The amendment did not pass.

Joshua Shirey then spoke to the second amendment, saying that if the messengers cannot call on other messengers, then they should be able to call upon UISBC staff. Mike Pless noted that UISBC staff are always available and that changing words to "generally" is not needed. Jared Jenkins said Resolutions are just statements and not new business. Jared Jenkins then called this amendment to a vote by hand. The motion did not pass.

Joshua Shirey then spoke to the third amendment. He said that unless a database of past resolutions is made available then there is undue burden put on messengers to not submit resolutions considered in the past. Jason McNair (LifePoint Church, Farmington UT), spoke against saying that meeting minutes are available even though they are not available through a database. Roger Naylor called it to a vote. The amendment did not pass.

On lines 3-4 being struck out, Mike Pless spoke against, noting that the Resolutions Committee already has discretion to bring Resolutions.

Timothy O'Day (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT) speaking for noted that this does give the committee broad powers and that resolutions could be rejected simply by being deemed as an attack when it is not an attack. Roger Naylor called for a vote. The amendment did not pass.

After the vote, Don Straka (Table Rock, Boise ID) asked that a reminder would be sent to remind churches of the deadline to submit resolutions at least 60 days before the deadline

Roger Naylor called for a vote on the original recommendation from the Constitution Committee. The motion carried.

Roger Naylor then called on the following committees:

Time/Place/ Preacher Committee

Sean Patrick (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City) reported for the Time/Place/Preacher Committee. He announced that the date would be October 25, 2024; Kevin Lund would be the preacher and Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT would be the location. Roger Naylor called for a vote and it passed.

Nominations Committee

David Howell (Emmanuel Baptist Church, Mountain Home ID) gave the report from the Nominations Committee. He presented the following new members for the UISBC Executive Committee: Scott Maxwell (Roosevelt BC, Roosevelt UT), Scott Plath (South Fork Outdoorsmen Church, ID), Hugh Orr (Riverside Church, Emmett ID), Steve Pierson (Redemption Hill, Eagle Mountain UT), Anders Snyder (Calvary Church, Nampa ID), Paul Campbell (Gospel Peace Church, Logan UT), Wendy Hoshizaki (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT). He also presented returning members: Laurie Pless (Redeeming Life Church, Bountiful UT) and Joshua Shirey (NorthStar Church, Hayden ID). Roger Naylor called for questions. There were none. He called for the vote. It was approved.

Properties and Loans Committee

Lauri Linder (Mountain View Baptist Church, Layton UT) gave the Properties and Loans Committee report. She noted that the committee has the fun job of giving loans and grants in order to help churches. Through these grants and loans, the committee helps churches in need. The loans are interest free. She also noted that the committee worked out a protocol for what to do when a church property reverts to the UISBC. She recommended that the next committee reviews the process of loans and grants in the future.

Program Committee

Charles Petty (Second Baptist, Ogden UT) reported on the Program Committee. He noted changes to the dates for Sonfest and also the making of a succession plan for volunteer consultants as shown in the Book of Reports.

Budget and Finance Committee

Daniel Savage (Redemption Church, Ogden UT) reported on the Budget and Finance Committee. He noted that much was accomplished. He directed the convention to page 27 to show changes. Overages in giving were sent to the Trust and Memorial fund for future grants and loans. In page 41, he noted that the Financial Compilation, which was a review of finances that came back clean. The committee also worked on designated funds that were unused. In some situations, funds were combined or renamed so that they would be more readily available for use. Lastly, they reworked the 2023 proposed budget and decreased the overall budget and shifted around items that kept more money in Utah for ministry (as seen on page 34-35 of the Book of Reports). Roger Naylor called for questions.

Russ Robinson (First Baptist Church, Provo UT) asked why the insurance was so expensive. Rob answered that it is insurance for all UISBC staff and noted that it has not increased over the past few years. This was not insurance for property.

Andrew Thompson (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT) asked what the church planting Strategy line item referred to. Rob Lee answered that this fund helps fund planters and also pay Clint Henry to help planters in Idaho. Clint Henry then spoke saying that all of that money goes toward church planters and he does not keep any of it.

Don Straka (Table Rock Church, Boise ID) asked if churches could opt out of receiving mailed resources in order to save on the postage budget. He suggested that churches be given the option of opting out.

Roger Naylor called for a vote on the presented budget. The motion carried.

Administrative Committee

Matt McGukin (Calvary Baptist Church, Idaho Falls ID) of the Administrative Committee reported. He noted that the board voted to do more than was required and essentially added onto their commitment. The motion was made and accepted that every pastor in the UISBC would be contacted twice a year by a member of the executive board in order to find out about their needs and concerns. He asked any pastor who did not receive a call to let him know so that they do not get missed again. There were no questions.

Roger Naylor prayed and dismissed for lunch.

Second Session

Jared welcomed Tono Rodriguez to lead the convention in worship.

Business Session 2

SBC Executive Committee Report

After worship, Jared Jenkins moved into Business Session 2 and invited Dr. Willie McLaurin (Interim President of the Executive Committee) to give the report for the SBC Executive Committee. He expressed his gratitude to the UISBC and the executive staff. "Thank you" was his central message. Thank you for giving to the CP, noting that over 20 billion dollars has gone through the CP. Over $200,000 million dollars came through the CP this year. The UISBC has given over 20 million dollars in total over its existence. He asked that we would pray for the Executive Committee and the convention as they navigating the sexual abuse issue and racism, seeking to refocus on the Great Commission. He noted that dealing with these issues will only serve to help us advance the gospel. He also asked for prayer for the EC presidential search team. He also pointed attention to the resource the EC made called "Navigating the Southern Baptist Convention" in order help people understand the SBC. He also emphasized the importance of prayer. He closed by inviting everyone to the 2023 annual meeting in New Orleans, LA. Rob Lee then prayed for Willie McLaurin.

Executive Director's Report

Rob Lee, Executive Director of the UISBC, gave his report. He said that while the national convention is a mess, the UISBC is not. He reiterated that the churches of UISBC are the UISBC and not himself and the staff. He noted that since so many churches had to be online during the pandemic, he was able to listen to more of the pastors than ever and he was encouraged by the proclamation of the gospel. He then shared the top three questions he received over the past three years and the answers. First, he has been asked if the SBC is going liberal (ex: is the SBC ordaining women and teaching critical race theory in seminaries?). Second, he fields questions over concerns about the CP (ex: will funds be used to address sexual abuse issues?). Third, he has only been asked once "what is God doing in the UISBC?" It concerns him that he has only been asked this once. In answer to question one, he answers, "No." The SBC passed a resolution saying that it stands against all unbiblical worldviews in Nashville. In Anaheim, the convention messengers rejected the suggestion to research what the meaning of pastor is since the meaning is clear. In answer to question two, he said that CP giving is not going toward legal fees. 70% of UISBC CP giving stays within Utah-Idaho for Utah-Idaho ministry needs. We are at greater risk of losing the CP because we are standing against each other. Additionally, the UISBC will honor however you designate your giving. In answer to the third question that he wishes he was asked, he said that CP giving allows churches to be helped in their ministry within and without churches. The UISBC has planted churches, reaching people with the gospel, and helping with disaster relief. He did note that four churches have left the convention and 10 have joined. He also exhorted members who have concerns to actually go to the annual meeting and make their concerns and views known.

Staff Reports

Jason McNair (State Missionary for Strengthening Churches) gave his report via video. He shared that his church is merging with King's Cross Church and how they were excited to see what this would bring in Davis County. He is grateful for the time that he has been able to serve in the UISBC. He serves to strengthen the relationship between the churches of the UISBC, making sure that churches aren't neglected. He noted the great things that he has heard of in regard to VBS throughout the convention. He invited viewers to come to the VBS training events, many of which are online. He also announced that Ski and Share will no longer be held due to lacking attendance. But he also announced that Sonfest will be from Thursday-Saturday with breakout sessions and a national speaker.

Gary McKean (Missions and Partnership Coordinator and Legal Consultant) gave a report on volunteers and legal issues via video. He said that church to church partnerships are important and noted the need of churches to focus on partnerships. He also asked that information about such partnerships be shared with him as there are funds available to help. He also noted the importance for churches to stay up to date on legal issues, particularly security and children's ministry.

Mary McFarling gave a report on the Women's Missions and Ministries via video. She shared that she and her team are encouraging growth in discipleship by meeting with women. The obstacles to this are distance and difference, but this is overcome by the connection in Christ and the desire to grow in knowing Christ. This is why they make events for women and assist churches in training for women's ministry.

Russ Hohmann gave his report about Disaster Relief via video. He encouraged members of churches to get involved in the ministry in order to help others see the love of Christ in action.

Ben Neiser, the Collegiate Coordinator gave his report on Collegiate Ministries via video. He said that the collegiate ministries are growing throughout UT-ID through churches. These churches are hosting lunches, outreach events, and more. Over 400 students came to see Frank Turek speak at collegiate events. There were 28 students with the GenSend program which resulted in over 1,500 gospel conversations. GenSend will now have a location in Boise and not just Utah. He asked churches to pray for believing college students as they are missionaries on campus. He also asked for prayer for collegiate ministers.

Bobby Wood, Send Network Director for Utah-Idaho, spoke and encouraged churches regarding the SEND Network via video. He encouraged the convention to read his report in the Book of Reports before sharing highlights of the Send Network over the past 10 years. He noted that many church planters now serve as pastors and play an active role in the UISBC. He noted that 11 churches have already launched or will launch by 2023. He noted that there were 55 baptisms in UT plants and 23 baptisms in ID plants this year. He added that GenSend is expanding to Boise next year.

Election of Officers

Dave Carver (Water's Edge Fellowship, Burley ID) noted as a point of information that there are 121 messengers present today. He then announced the election of officers. Dave Carver called for nominations for President of the Convention.

Michael Cooper (The Point Church, Kearns UT) nominated Jared Jenkins to serve as president of the UISBC. There were no other nominations so he was approved by acclamation.

Dave Carver then announced nominations for 1st VP. Daniel Savage (Redemption Church, Ogden UT) nominated Roger Naylor. There were no other nominees so he was elected by acclamation.

Dave Carver then announced nominations for 2nd VP. Matt McGukin nominated Dave Carver for second vice President. There were no other nominations so it was accepted by acclamation.

Dave Carver then called nominations for Recording Secretary. Russ Robinson (First Baptist Church, Provo UT) nominated Timothy O'Day for Recording Secretary. Trey Sapp (Salmon Valley Baptist Church, Salmon ID) nominated Jonathan Blair (Awaken City, Herriman UT). Since there are two nominees, there will be a ballot vote. Teller Committee to oversee the process.

Dave Carver announced a break after ballots were collected.

Third Convention Message

After the break, Tono Rodriguez came to the stage and lead the convention in worship. After worship, Jared Jenkins gave the third convention message and spoke on the theme "A Common Body" from 1 Corinthians 12. He then closed in prayer.

Mike Palmer recognized that Nathan and Amber Harden have blessed many churches in the convention, saying they are examples of living as one body. He noted that they have a need for a truck and encouraged the messengers to pray and even give toward that need.

New Business and Resolutions

Dave Carver then invited motions for new business.

Andrew Thompson (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT). He came forward with an exhortation that it would be encouraging to put a greater emphasis on the business of the convention. Dave Carver thanked him for the exhortation.

There was no other new business, so Dave Carver invited Ron Clement (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT) to present for the Resolutions Committee.

Ron Clement reported on resolutions received. He recognized the other committee members. The only resolution brought forward from committee reads as follows:

WHEREAS, The 58th Annual Meeting of the Utah/Idaho Southern Baptist Convention took place on Oct 28, 2022.

WHEREAS, The UISBC took place at Mountain View Baptist Church in Layton, Utah.

Be it RESOLVED, the messengers of the UISBC want to thank Mountain View for being gracious and willing hosts of this year's annual meeting and proving to be a faithful kingdom partner by such hosting.

Dave Carver said that the resolution came by committee so it needs no second. He then called for a vote and the resolution carried.

Ron Clement then announced that one other resolution was proposed, but the committee did not see it as a fitting resolution or indicative of the culture that existed within the UISBC since it was on plagiarism. It required too much change to be presented.

Jared Jenkins then announced the results of the runoff for Recording Secretary, noting that having a run off for Recording Secretary was a good sign of involvement in the UISBC. He then announced that Timothy O'Day was elected as the Recording Secretary for the next year.

Dave Carver then announced a 15 minute break and prayed.

Third Session

Annual Message

After the break Jared Jenkins welcomed messengers back for the last session and prayed. Tono Rodriguez led the convention in worship. Then Matt Emadi (Crossroads Baptist Church, Sandy UT) gave the Annual Message entitled "The Fruit of Partnership: Joy" from Philippians 1:3-5.

Introduction of officers

Rob Lee then announced officers for 2023: Jared Jenkins (Risen Life Church, Salt Lake City UT), President; Roger Naylor (FBC Bonners Ferry, Bonners Ferry ID), 1st Vice President; Dave Carver (Water's Edge Fellowship, Burley ID), 2nd Vice President; Timothy O'Day (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT), Recording Secretary.

Special Recognitions

Rob Lee recognized and thanked board members rotating off: Lauri Linder (Mountain View Baptist Church, Layton UT), Matt Emadi (Crossroads Baptist Church, Sandy UT), and Corey Hodges (The Point Church, Kearns UT). He thanked them for their service.

Rob Lee also gave a special thanks to Sally Teny. Then he recognized Gary McKean for serving as a legal consultant to the convention for 15 years.

Then Rob Lee asked messengers from new convention churches to stand so that they could be recognized.

Closing of Annual Meeting

Jared Jenkins thanked those in attendance for coming and their partnership in the gospel. Jared Jenkins called for a motion to adjourn. Mike Palmer made a motion to adjourn. It was seconded by Sam Anderton (University Baptist Church, Boise ID.) The motion was approved.

The UISBC Annual Meeting closed.

Submitted by Timothy O'Day (Christ Fellowship Church, Lehi UT), Convention Recording Secretary for 2022.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MINUTES
October 28, 2022

The Executive Board of the Utah-Idaho Southern Baptist Convention met in-person on October 28, 2022.

Matt McGukin called the meeting to order at 1:00 pm.

Attendance. The following board members were present: Matt McGukin, Lauri Linder, Timothy O'Day; Laurie Pless; Paul Campbell; Anders Snyder; Daniel Savage, Jared Jenkins, Roger Naylor, Wendy Hoshizaki; Dave Carver, Timothy O'Day, Joshua Shirey; Matthew Claridge, Scott Plath; Charles Petty, Connie Ward.
State staff members in attendance: Rob Lee, Jason McNair, Debbie Chidester, Sally Teny, Janice Trotter

Reminder of GuideStone benefits:
Rob Lee informed the board of the GuideStone benefits and opportunities available to pastors. Other employees, including secretarial staff and custodial staff employed by the church could also be eligible. The completed State Convention Election Form (see attachment) is due by December 1, 2022.

NEW BUSINESS
Properties & Loans Committee:

Lauri Linder presented the following action item on behalf of the committee.
Action item 22-007-PL. Quit claim Emmanuel Baptist Church Request.
Background: Emmanuel Baptist Church, Cottonwood, Idaho quit claim deeded their church facility to the Utah-Idaho Southern Baptist Convention in Oct. 10, 1986. Current pastor Dan Coburn since Oct 2005 has requests that the UISBC transfer the title back to the church. He said that at the time, Emmanuel was quite small but is now fully functioning and has grown. Pastor Dan believes it would be appropriate for the title to come back the church. Recommendation from the staff and Properties & Loan Committee is that the title be transferred back to the church. The committee invites discussion and a decision regarding whether the quit claim deed should include a statement pertaining to property reversion. Proposed options include 1) no statement pertaining to reversion, 2) reversion to the UISBC should the property no longer be in use for religious purposes by Emmanuel Baptist Church, or 3) reversion to the UISBC should the property no longer be in use for religious purposes by Emmanuel Baptist Church or another church of like faith.

- Josh Shirey moved to not include a statement pertaining to reversion in the quit claim deed. Charles Petty seconded. Motion carried.

Information regarding Sexual Abuse Task Force (SATF) Recommendations to State Conventions: (see attachment). Rob Lee shared information regarding the recommendation that state conventions consider having a designated, trained staff person or independent contractor to receive calls regarding allegations of sexual abuse and provide initial guidance. The Wyoming State Convention is in the process of establishing an Ethics & Compliance Consultant role through employing Aubrey Steinle, who has a degree in counseling from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and over 15 years of trauma-informed practice as a licensed counselor. As part of its response to the SATF recommendations, the UISBC could jointly hire Ms. Steinle with the Wyoming Convention. Initial retainer fees would be approximately $2,000 and would allow the UISBC to access her services beginning January 1, 2023. Discussion among board members was to have additional conversation with Ms. Steinle as well as to consider other options that would align with SATF recommendations.

Meeting adjourned at 1:46 pm

EXECUTIVE BOARD MINUTES
May 13, 2023

The Executive Board of the Utah-Idaho Southern Baptist Convention met via hybrid in-person and Zoom-based format on May 13, 2023.

Call to Order & Devotional
Matt McGukin called the meeting to order at 9:00 am. Matt McGukin shared a devotional from Psalm 126, where God's people express hope for God's revival followed by a call to responsibility in sowing and reaping. The Psalm invites us to lay down what isn't ours to bear, but then calls us to embrace the ministry of "weeping and rejoicing" in our evangelism and discipleship.

Roll Call. Matthew Claridge called the roll; the following were present:
Matt McGukin, Anders Snyder, Daniel Savage, Jared Jenkins, Roger Naylor, Dave Carver, Timothy O'Day, Matthew Claridge, Laurie Pless, Charles Petty, Connie Ward, Hugh Orr, Wendy Hoshizaki, Paul Campbell, Scott Maxwell, and Chase Roberts via Zoom call.

Derek Duvall, Steve Pierson, Billy Galloska, Scott Plath, and Joshua Shirey were absent and had informed the board of their absences in advance. The board approved these absences as excused. Joshua Shirey has resigned.

Recognition of Guests

Minutes. The minutes for the Executive Board meeting of August 27, 2022 and October 28, 2022 were presented and reviewed. Charles Petty moved to approve the minutes and Roger Naylor seconded. The minutes were approved as presented.

Financial Report. Rob Lee reviewed income and expenses through March 2023. (see attached report).

December of 2022 was the biggest giving month in the history of the Convention. We only had three months last year that were above budget. We ended last year just 3.64% below budget. We are currently 16.6% behind budget for the first four months of the current fiscal year.

Some positive developments: the UISBC is one of only ten state conventions that provide the matching retirement death benefit for our ministers. We have four retired ministers receiving assistance in the amount of $17,000 through Mission:Dignity program. 54 churches are enrolled in the GuideStone retirement program. GuideStone is partnering with the UISBC to provide a pastor and their wives retreat July 18-20th, and looking toward a Spring event on McCall, ID.

Jared Jenkins asked if Rob had any idea how many churches have modified their Cooperative Program giving. Rob is continuing to gather and compile data on this question.

Matt McGukin moved to accept the financial report. Motion carried.

U & I Together report.

Rob Lee gave the report. Recognizing the limits of his time and ability, Rob thanked every member of the board who have been involved in our pastor contact initiative.

Rob lamented the weakening of associational leadership and participation. This has led to an increasing load on the State Convention staff to fill in for what was traditionally handled by an associational DOM. Even with the decline in these areas, churches are still eager for fellowship. Rob wants to build on that desire, and the pastor outreach initiative has helped.

Rob asked, "Where is God moving in our two-state convention? What are the needs?" He gave the following answers: 1) Growing our pastor and wives ministry. 2) the Salt Lake School of Theology—there are increasing number of students requesting aid. 3) growing our loan and grant fund to provide relief to churches in need of building projects and housing for pastors. 4) need for transitional interim pastors.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Properties & Loans – Matthew Claridge reported for the committee.

Action item 23-002-PL. The committee recommended that if and when title for the Rogerson Baptist Church (south of Twin Falls) is received by the UISBC, that the title would then be transferred to Magic Valley Baptist Association. Eastside Baptist Church, a member of the Magic Valley Baptist Association, has provided pulpit supply over the last seven years. Once title is received, the committee recommended giving the State Convention Staff authority to sign the property over to the MVBA. Questions were asked about communication with MVBA and what contingencies are for their rejections. Motion made by committee, approved unanimously.

Action item 23-003-PL. the property in Fillmore, UT. The state convention owns the property. Looked into planting new work there, and that has not taken place. There is an Independent Bible Church that is interested to rent with the possibility to purchase down the road. Recommendation was given to empower state staff to negotiate rent with possible future purchase with this local, evangelical church. Motion made, passes.

Program Committee – Connie Ward reported for the committee.

No action items were presented for the Executive Board.

The committee did have a conversation about developing succession plans for our volunteer staff.

The committee discussed how the UISBC should respond to the national sexual abuse debate.

Jason McNair gave a report on Sonfest. It will be held in August. During the September meeting, Jason will give a report on how the event went. It is being hosted at Mtn. View Baptist Church in Layton.

Budget and Finance Committee – Chase Roberts reported for the committee via Zoom.

Action item 23-001-BF. The committee recommended unanimously to move forward on a financial compilation review of UISBC finances. This did not require a vote from the Board.

Action Item 23-002-BF. The committee did not vote on this action item and decided to readdress it at a later date.

Action Item 23-003-BF. The committee recommends splitting PPP paycheck funds in the amount of $ 67K between the Pastor and Wives' retreat and scholarships for the SMO Christian Leadership Higher Education Fund.

Administrative Committee – Matt McGukin reported for the committee.

Action item 23-002-AC. The committee recommends forming a new committee, called the Abuse Reform Implementation Committee, that will develop guidelines and policies for the UISBC on how to respond to sexual abuse allegations reported to the State Convention. This committee will report to the Executive Board, and then to the Convention as a whole. The ARI committee will consist of five members, a pastor from each state, our volunteer legal counsel, a female, and a state staff representative. Laurie Pless, Hugh Orr, Timothy O'Day, Brian Davis, and Rob Lee volunteered to serve on this committee. Motion passed.

OLD/UNFINISHED BUSINESS
Matt McGukin highlighted the anniversaries of our State Staff

NEW BUSINESS
Sojourn Church in West Haven, Utah, pastored by Jeff Winters, has applied for membership in our State Convection. Our Credentials Committee, having reviewed their application, recommends we vote them into the convention. Rob gave a report about the church. Timothy O'Day raised concerns that the board did not receive the credentialing documentation for review. The decision was made to allow time for the board members to review these documents online, and then have an email vote.

Next board meeting date was set for September 8-9th at Risen Life Church. Motion passed.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

Hugh Orr asked how the UISBC can respond to any "liberal drift" happening in the national SBC. Matt McGukin affirmed that the Convention can provide a statement, but it's important that it would be on something specific and possesses consensus. Rob spoke of other channels open to us for influencing the direction of the national SBC.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MINUTES
September 9, 2023

The Executive Board of the Utah-Idaho Southern Baptist Convention met via hybrid in-person and Zoom-based format on September 9, 2023 at Risen Life Church.

Call to Order & Devotional
Matt McGukin called the meeting to order at 9:00 am. Matt McGukin shared a devotional from Romans 15:13. Matt had the privilege and blessing of receiving a sabbatical this summer, and this passage became his theme verse for this time of refreshing. The joy and abounding hope promised in these verses do not arise from our own willpower, but by the power of God as we believe in what God has said and done in the gospel. This passage can be a tremendous resource in our times of reflection and trial.

Roll Call. Matthew Claridge called the roll; the following were present in person or via Zoom: Matt McGukin, Charles Petty, Matthew Claridge, Jared Jenkins, Roger Naylor, Dave Carver, Timothy O'Day, Paul Campbell, Billy Galloska, Wendy Hoshizaki, Scott Maxwell, Hugh Orr, Daniel Savage, Laurie Pless, Anders Snyder, Connie Ward, and Chase Roberts.

Derek Duvall and Scott Plath informed the board of their absence and were excused. Steve Pierson's absence was not excused.

Recognition of Guests

Minutes. The minutes for the Executive Board meeting of May 14, 2023 were presented and reviewed. Charles Petty moved to approve the minutes and Anders Snyder seconded. The minutes were approved as presented.

Financial Report. Rob Lee reviewed income and expenses through July 2023. (see attached report).

December of last year was the best month of giving in the history of Utah-Idaho Convention, around 105k. From January through June, we've been below budget in monthly receipts. At this point we would want to be at 58.33 % of our budget, but in actual fact we are around 51.94 % of our budget. Given the economic challenges of our two states and nationally, this is not as bad as it could be. Additionally, monthly receipts for May and July have been above budget. This could herald a positive trend going forward.

Our State Missions Offering up to this point stands at 36,256.01. At this time in 2022, we were 6k below expected receipts, and yet we had a tremendous bump in giving the following December. This year, we are only 3k below SMO last year ~~budget~~, which might foretell a similar increase in the following months.

We had a goal of providing a financial compilation for this meeting. However, the auditor we've been working with left the company, and the new auditor in charge of our accounts has been playing catch up. Janice Trotter, our accountant, has been pushing them to get this completed but it didn't quite make it across the finish line. As soon as it comes in, it will be sent to the Budget and finance committee.

Rob and Janice have discussed the possibility of switching to a different auditing company. However, any change would require a full audit, which is not reflected in our current budget. Next year, a mid-level audit will be required. Janice has in mind an auditor she's worked with for the other state conventions. Again, however, any change will require a full audit. We will continue to assess the situation, and if we move forward on a new auditor, we will need permission from our committee to adjust the auditing cycle per our financial policies.

For promoting our State Missions Offering, Rob encouraged us all to take advantage of the U&I publication that our Convention staff put together which includes church testimonies and the "Week of Prayer" guide. He reminded us that 100% of our SMO stays within our states.

Rob pointed out that our staff have been keeping expenses below budget.

U & I Together report.

Rob Lee gave the report. Rob gave a shout out to Janice Trotter who has served the UISBC for the past 10 years. Janice also handles the accounting needs of the Wyoming and Nevada Conventions. She is available for consultation for any of our churches.

Rob has received many positive calls from churches in response to the most recent national convention in New Orleans. Rob expressed appreciation for our convention president, Bart Barber and the way he led the annual meeting. Many churches that reached out to Rob announced their desire to continue to give or renew their giving to the Cooperative Program. Of the three dozen churches not giving in May, twelve have already started giving again.

Rob celebrated the number of baptisms being reported in our Convention. Steve Pierson's church had 34 baptized in a service recently. Among a rural church in eastern Utah, there have been 65 baptisms in the last two years.

Rob spoke of the partnership we've developed with the Northwest Georgia association. Many of our people have gone back to Geogia to assist them with their Great Commission work.

Rob reported on the Pastors' Wives retreat which was tri-hosted with GuideStone and NAMB, in Park City, Utah on July 18th -20th. This is the first statewide retreat since before Covid. By partnering with these other parties, the retreat was able to cut costs and bless the couples both materially and spiritually. Another retreat is scheduled for next spring in McCall, Idaho. GuideStone and NAMB will be partnering with us again.

Lee briefly discussed some of the challenges our convention faces. Lee attended the funerals of three of our faithful retired pastors who have gone home to the Lord. It was a reminder of the continual need to pray for more pastors in the field. Lee mentioned his involvement in the Abuse Reform Implementation Committee. Many associations are still struggling without directors of missions. The loss of these DOM positions places a greater burden on our state staff to provide support.

Lee wanted to give a shoutout to Brian Davis, our legal counsel, who visited each church in the Silver Lakes Association.

Lee shared his desire to see a Harvest Crusade conducted in the Salt Lake area. Lee senses that many Mormons are growing dissatisfied with their faith tradition and are looking for new spiritual direction. The many Mormon wards going up for sale shows a shift is happening. Although Lee certainly wants something to be done when 2027 comes around, he's eager to see if we can pull off a Harvest Crusade in the meantime. Lee has reached out to Greg Laurie to see what his interest level might be.

Lee highlighted a few stories of churches fulfilling different aspects of our core mission: churches sharing Christ, churches starting churches, and churches strengthening churches. He mentioned the activity of Calvary, Nampa, Idaho and her revitalization efforts with another local church that was struggling. Gospel Grace Church, a newer church in the Salt Lake area, is working with Cornerstone to bring about revitalization.

We continue to support evangelism grants to churches and our collegiate ministries in conjunction with NAMB. Jason McNair reported three professions of faith within the first week of this school year.

A new plant is launching this Sunday in a zip code within Salt Lake that has not had an English-speaking Evangelical church presence before. Rob requested prayer for many of our rural churches that have been without pastors, some for many years. This need allowed Lee to segway into the great work that is being done by our Salt Lake School of Theology to train local church leaders. In their most recent colloquium, 120 students participated.

There are several churches who are thinking about joining our state convention. Additionally, several of our church plants coming off their NAMB financial assistance are able to fully fund their pastor. In light of all these hopeful developments, we can have absolute confidence that the Lord is working and moving in our midst.

Charles Petty moved to receive Rob Lee's report. It was unanimously accepted.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Properties & Loans – Matthew Claridge reported for the committee.

No action item was presented for the Executive Board.

Matthew updated the committee on the details of a possible lease with intention to buy a church property in Fillmore, Utah. Negotiations on lease payments, purchase price, and other details are still pending and will be announced to the board as consensus is reached. Matt Claridge will continue to serve as chairman of the committee.

Program Committee – Connie Ward reported for the committee.

No action items were presented for the Executive Board.

Connie shared about the difficulty of communication and fellowship among our two-state convention but commended the executive board's efforts to reach out to our local churches. Connie shared about her contact with a local pastor as part of this outreach effort and the blessing each received from their conversation. Our churches are reporting greater attendance for their programs, such as VBS, youth events, and outreach events. Attendance at our Sonfest event was below expectations and Jason McNair will be assessing what adjustments need to be made to help increase the profile of the event. Connie commended the woman's conference that is conducted during our annual meeting. Connie Ward will continue to serve as chairman of this committee.

Budget and Finance Committee – Chase Roberts reported for the committee via Zoom.

We reviewed next year's proposed budget as adjusted to reflect COLA increases. Chase mentioned a couple adjustments they made to the budget as presented in our handouts, which were then reflected in an updated budget handed out during Executive session (see attached amended budget). The committee moved $ 8,000 sitting in the travel account from CP dollars SMO side. There are already roughly $ 86,000 designated funds in the SMO that can be used for any traveling expenses that would be used by CP dollars.

There was also a COLA adjustment for the salaries of our full-time state staff at 1.5%. This increase was approved by the Administrative Committee. Coming from the committee, a second was not required to approve the proposed budget. Executive board unanimously approved the proposed budget.

Action Item: 23-004-BF The committee voted to give any overage we receive this year above and beyond our budget to be given entirely to the Cooperative Program rather than the Pastors' and Wives retreat. Motion made, approved unanimously.

Hugh Orr asked for clarification of what the Salt Lake School of Theology involves. Jared Jenkins provided an explanation of how it is accredited, costs, and what courses it provides.

Chase Roberts will continue as Chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee.

Approval of Financial report: motion made, motion carried.

Administrative Committee – Matt McGukin reported for the committee.
Matt mentioned the committee's approval of the 1.5% COLA adjustment. Matt suggested the board should continually assess if our executive board is functioning the best way possible and if we need to consider having other committees, such as a mission committee.

Action Item 23-003-AC Housing allowance for our state missionaries, Rob Lee and Jason McNair. Motion made; motion carried.

STATE MISSIONARY CONTRACT and VOLUNTEER 2023 REPORTS

Executive Director/Treasurer
Rob Lee
October 2022 – September 2023

Staff

Jason McNair assists churches with Church Strengthening, VBS, groups, technology, and Church Revitalization. Gary McKean has handed over more legal consultant work to Brian Davis, our new contract legal consultant, and is devoting more time to our partnership with Northwest Region of the Georgia Baptist Mission Board. Russ Hohmann, contract State Disaster Relief Director; Mary McFarling, Coordinator of the Women's Missions and Ministries Network; Ben Neiser, Coordinator of the Collegiate Ministry Network. Debbie Chidester and Sally Teny have ensured that office work continues efficiently.

Pastors and Wives Retreat

July 18 – 20 was our first ReCharge Retreat for Pastors and Wives since before COVID. It was a three-way partnership (GuideStone, North American Mission Board, and UISBC) to put the retreat together at the Newpark Resort in Park City. Mark Dance, Director of Pastor Wellness at GuideStone, was the featured speaker. The theme was "Winning at Home and Church." The focus was giving couples more retreat time with NAMB gifting each couple with gift cards to use for a date night the second evening of the retreat. We are in negotiations to have the retreat repeated this upcoming spring in McCall, Idaho, April 25-27, 2024.

Abuse Reform Implementation Committee

ARIC started meeting via Zoom in May. We have met seven times to discuss how our state convention can respond to accusations, assist victims, state law requirements in both states, convention policy for response, and resources to assist churches and victims of abuse. ARIC reached out to two other state conventions about the response and training they are providing their churches. There are a lot of resources to assist victims and churches. This committee has reviewed and discussed how we will provide these to our churches to make them safe places of worship for all. Brian Davis and intern, William Galkin, have been extremely helpful.

SEND Utah-Idaho and Church Planter Catalyst

Mike Palmer and Bobby Wood lead our Send Utah-Idaho Church Plant network allowing our assessed church planters to have access to NAMB resources regardless of the region of their plant. Michael Cooper serves all of Utah as our Church Plant Catalyst and Bobby Wood SEND Salt Lake Missionary assists in northern Utah. Richard Dugger serves all of Idaho as our Church Planter Catalyst and Clint Henry assists in Treasure Valley.

Partnership

Our partnership with Georgia Baptist's Northwest Region continues to host Vision Tours from Northwest Georgia with a focus on northern Idaho. The thrust of the partnership is to link churches to churches. Many of our church plants host mission teams throughout the year with many coming in for spring break trips and through the summer.

National Meetings

Director attended the Executive Director Fellowship meeting, Western Executive Director meeting with Gateway Seminary, Western State Evangelism Directors meeting and State Directors of Evangelism national meeting, SBC Executive Committee meeting, and Stewardship/CP Promotion meeting. This year, many of the national meetings met for the first time in person since 2020. The director attended many of the meetings to hear what was happening and to be able to answer concerns and express concerns from UISBC pastors.

Budget

We ended the 2022 year below budget for first time in the past seven years by $29,110.83 (-3.64%). So far, 2023 has been impacted by the rate of inflation, cost of fuel, and national SBC concerns. The first half of 2023 has been below CP budget. The first quarter of 2023, we are 16.5% below CP budget. The second quarter came in stronger. Through July we are 10.9% below budget with May and July both being above budget months for the year.

Sharing Christ

The North American Mission Board continues to assist with Evangelism grants to help our churches train in evangelism and to provide additional support for outreach events. The State Missions Offering continues to be a resource to assist in outreach events as well as church strengthening efforts. NAMB has developed a new Evangelism kit to assist churches in developing a culture of evangelism in their churches. This summer, we heard reports of Vacation Bible School attendance going up. The Director has been sharing baptism pictures and video from our churches on Facebook this year as a focus on what the Lord is doing through our churches sharing Christ and discipling believers.

State Convention Missions Needs

With the reduction of staff, we focus on three priorities in what support we can give our churches. We continue to use volunteers to assist us in critical ministries and for retired ministers to assist us as Transitional Interim pastors and pulpit supply. Our local associations are still in transition from having NAMB funded Associational Missionaries resulting in State Staff picking up the responsibilities assisting with training Pastor Search Committees. Karen Willoughby has been contacting churches to gather Annual Church Profile for us and is writing news stories for our UI Connections and Baptist Press. Our needs for volunteers to assist in pulpits supply as well as Transitional Pastors, State Missions Offering development, and other Churches Sharing Christ, Churches Starting Churches, and Churches Strengthening Churches priority needs. Staff is greatly appreciative of the Executive Board contacting pastors.

State Missionary for Strengthening Churches
Jason McNair
2023 Annual Meeting Report

Surrendered to Jesus Christ, the UISBC Staff Members are challenged to:

1. Facilitate strategic relationships between churches for the purposes of serving one another so that every church is connected to strengthen another church.
2. Set yearly goals that are obedient, clear, and measurable to meet the challenge of this vision.

We continue to develop plans and strategies that work to connect churches to one another. In January, I was again privileged to work with our national partner, Lifeway, to serve on the Training Faculty of Vacation Bible School Preview Event Staff for the second year in a row. I was able to tell the Utah-Idaho story to over 1000 people who attended the workshops that I led. One of the breakouts was specifically centered on using VBS to build bridges to cultures and communities that do not share our faith traditions and beliefs. It was a great way to help kids' workers from across the country see the challenges churches face when they seek to impact their community that doesn't share their faith foundations. More communities, even in the Bible belt, are looking more and more like our ministry context and we have a lot to add to the conversation after years of pushing back darkness in hard places.

Speaking of VBS, our Spring VBS training events wrapped up in the Treasure Valley area. The 2023 theme, Twists and Turns, centered around board, card, and video games, but the Bible content took participants on a journey through the life of Peter as he sought to follow Jesus through life's twists and turns. Our Utah-Idaho team taught workshops in Roosevelt, Layton, and Washington, UT, then Cottonwood and Meridian, ID. These five workshops offered in English sought to equip churches across our two states on this valuable evangelistic opportunity. Every event was well received and attended. Following a busy training season, we got great reports of VBS events happening across our two states that outpaced pre-covid numbers. VBS and Summer Outreach events are the #1 way churches can reach their communities. Lifeway VBS 2024 will make its way to the Pacific Northwest with the theme, Breaker Rock Beach, God's rock solid truth in a world of shifting sands. Look to our website for training dates and locations.

In April, I had the opportunity to return to Northern Idaho for the first time in two years. It was great to reconnect with pastors, church leaders, volunteers, and mission partners to hear first-hand what God is doing in Whispering Pines area of our convention. While there are still challenges related to national SBC issues that we need to be aware of, those issues did not damper the fellowship and need for connecting with one another and look past the disagreements to what we have in common, the mission of carrying out the Great Commission and find ways we can work together. In follow-up to these connections, UISBC is partnering with Clearwater Baptist Church to modernize and update their sound and video technology so they can better communicate the gospel clearly in this important area of Idaho. A special thanks to Rocky Mason of Central Valley Baptist Church in Meridian for providing unused sound equipment for this ministry.

In May, our state convention hosted the National State Sunday School leaders fellowship gathering in Park City, UT. Following this meeting, I was elected to serve as president of this fellowship for a one-year term. We hosted Dr. Jeff Iorg, Dr. Ken Braddy, and Dr. PJ Dunn as they each shared how we can utilize best practices to strengthen group ministries in our respective states and regions. Jeff shared of his experience how a healthy group ministry strategy was instrumental in the vitality of every church he encountered. He also shared helpful leadership tools we can use to assist in our work. Ken shared an update from Lifeway and how they are partnering with us in our work. PJ Dunn shared insights on best practices to reach the fastest growing demographic in the United States, single adults. PJ is a leading expert in the challenges of reaching singles, having done extensive research on the topic through his ministry, "Table for One". Now serving on state convention staff of Georgia Baptist Mission Board in their Discipleship Leadership team, I hope to utilize PJ's expertise and may schedule several follow-up conversations this year to address how our churches can do a better job reaching singles more effectively. This was a topic discussed by the Executive Board Program Committee at their Spring meeting earlier this year. I was asked if I could find out more. In April 2024, this gathering will move to Jonesboro, GA, where I will be passing the president tasks to Scott Sullivan of Georgia Baptist Mission Board Discipleship.

In July, our staff worked together to host our Recharge Pastor, Staff, and Wives Retreat at Newpark Resort in Park City, UT in partnership with NAMB and Guidestone Financial Resources. It was a wonderful time of fellowship, worship, and vital conversations with pastors and their spouses related to how we can better partner with them in their mission. I, unfortunately, had to leave after the second day and missed being able to stay with the rest of the staff and pastors. My uncle in Texas passed away the week before and Brittany and I were called on to travel to Grand Prairie, TX to oversee the ministry to my family the rest of that week, concluding with officiating his funeral. For the time I spent with the pastors, it was well received, and I got the impression that the gifts and care shown by our staff and hosts was appreciated. Wives especially enjoyed being pampered for the days we spent together. We look forward to doing this again in April in McCall, ID with the same ministry partnerships in place. I encourage any pastor or staff person who can to attend this event. We love connecting and fellowshipping in this way with those on the front lines of ministry across our two states.

In August, we hosted our annual Sonfest Youth Evangelism Event. This year, it underwent the largest overhaul in over a decade. The new format both helped and hindered the success and failures related to the event. While participation would give the impression this event did not meet expectations, the direct evaluations of the new format were well received by those who were in attendance. On Friday, I asked for a candid and honest perspective regarding the changes. Here is the overview of the changes made and the evaluation of each change. This will speak into how we plan for this event in the future.

Sonfest 2023 Evaluation

Switched to a Thursday night start instead of the traditional Friday registration and Session 1

- Feedback: This was a challenge for churches to find youth leaders able to take an additional day off work to chaperone, leading to groups bringing fewer students. Some churches who regularly attend chose not to come altogether because of this change.

- Future Option: While the benefits of this did lead us to be able to have more time on Friday with the students in a small group format, the loss of participation is too great a cost and we will not try the Thursday night start again in the future.

Added small group breakout opportunities for students and adults on Friday morning

- Feedback: This was a great addition and was universally appreciated as a way of discussing and learning important truths in a small group setting.
- Future Option: We are considering going back to a Friday night Session 1 but modify the Saturday morning schedule to incorporate 8:30 and 9:30 breakout sessions, then followed by a "pep rally" style session with a brief, high-energy worship set, then a homiletic challenge by the guest speaker to encourage gospel conversations while at Lagoon that day. Sunday morning session will be on the lawn at Mountain View Baptist Church so we won't disrupt their AM schedule. The event will conclude by 11 AM Sunday morning.

Created room blocks in area hotels for churches rather than booking rooms on their behalf

- Feedback: Some of the youth leaders did not like the change but understand the reason behind why that decision was made by the convention. With more lead time, they may be able to navigate this change without too much added expense.
- Future Option: We will keep this change in place, but work to negotiate more hotel options, as well as, provide contact information to local churches willing to host student youth groups as a low cost housing option. Two local churches have already offered their facilities as possibilities.

Sonfest 2024 has been scheduled for August 2-4 at Mountain View Baptist Church in Layton again. Adam Richardson will work in partnership to help us find a worship team that will work well for the venue and setting. He will plan to lead the worship breakouts on that Saturday morning. At least three youth leaders from churches across the two states will meet via Zoom to help plan theme and speaker for 2024.

I continue to manage and seek to improve our communications aspects of convention life. Our social media presence continues to grow as we regularly post updates and articles throughout the month. By the 9th of each month, we have an email push of all the articles published in our UI Connections news site pushed out to over 700 subscribers. We always seek to add more subscribers to that list. We have started making many of our training events hybrid events that are available both in-person and online in some form or another. YouTube has been the most common tool for that purpose since it is shareable across other platforms more easily than others.

It is a joy to serve the churches of UISBC. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions about the task of helping churches strengthen churches across our two states.

Collegiate Ministries Report
Ben Neiser
Fall 2023

What was accomplished?

There is a lot of time for preparation for the fall semester happening in the summer, as most of our regular students head home. Our collegiate ministry practitioners, all over our convention, host teams in the summer. These teams predominantly work in the area of evangelism. These teams also serve to strengthen the local church efforts to reach their towns. Collegiate Week in Falls Creek, OK is another major event that our state practitioners attend for the purposes of leadership development and equipping of their students.

Evangelism and GenSend Summer

A large portion of the summer work done in reaching the campus is through the NAMB GenSend Summer program. This year we had 35 students from all over the country come and spend eight weeks with us. They served in four different locations in Utah. All of those locations in college towns. Students were trained in evangelism and living life as missionaries. The gospel was shared over 1800 times this summer by these students. The students serve to strengthen and help plant new churches. This program has also led some participants to move permanently to the area to be a part of the churches they worked with for the summer.

What is next?

Ben has formed more formal partnerships with Texas BSM, Alabama BCM, and South Carolina BCM to provide a pipeline of recent college grads to come live life on mission in Utah and Idaho. More specifically we desire for these partnerships to send long-term missionaries to serve in collegiate ministry in partnership with local churches in college towns.
These partnerships have produced several missionaries that are now on the field working with UISBC churches in Provo, Ogden, Kaysville, and Logan. Lord willing, more will come to serve.

How do those actions tie in to the UISBC mission and vision?

Sharing Christ
We are focusing on continued faithful evangelism in our collegiate ministries through short-term mission teams, evangelism training, and holding our student leaders accountable while creating a culture of evangelism.

Starting Churches
The NAMB GenSend program is designed for students to get real world experience in church-planting and evangelism in the UISBC context. The front-line work that is done through GenSend is used in future church planting efforts.

Strengthening Ministries
A number of our collegiate ministry practitioners host short-term teams in the summer in connection with local churches. We leverage our collegiate ministry connections in other states to serve the local church in Utah and Idaho.

How can we (Program Committee/Executive Board) help?
Prayer for the campuses and campus ministry practitioners in our convention.
Contact me if you have an interested candidate for collegiate ministry in our convention.
Encourage local churches to adopt college campuses near them for prayer.

Director of Business Services
Janice Trotter
September 2023

Our Cooperative Program receipts for 2022 were $771,005, which was 96% of budget. We have received $412,648 in Cooperative Program funds from the churches so far this year. That puts us at 89% of budget for the year, which is up from 84% in April. Praise God for the commitment of our churches to giving to missions. We continue to be in good financial shape and able to continue doing the ministry God has for us in Utah and Idaho.

Below is a chart showing how the mission giving has been distributed at home and across the world. It is helpful to get a feel for the impact our giving is having. It is a such a blessing how the smallest church can have global impact. Praise God for the Cooperative Program!

It is a privilege to have a small part in partnering with the convention's ministries of Strengthening Churches, Sharing Christ, and Starting Churches; by sending the money out and keeping track of the funds available for these efforts. I am available to any of our churches and church plants to provide information and help with church financial issues.

Outreach and Assistance

Legal continued its outreach program with continuing the church legal seminar series and Zenas' Brief. Legal recently went on an excursion to the churches in the Silver Lakes Association, meeting with four different churches in Northern Idaho. The purpose of the meeting was to check in and see if the churches had any needs the UISBC could meet. Legal also met with one church in southern Idaho and discussed the governing documents Legal had crafted for the church. The churches appeared to appreciate the visits. Legal gave some reflections to the UISBC staff, and we are looking into how we can further support churches.

Sexual Abuse Policies

Legal has been busy contacting sister conventions and seeing if they have any policies and procedures addressing sexual abuse. Legal also put together a meeting between the UISBC's Abuse Reform Implementation Committee and similar working groups with sister conventions to discuss their work and learn how we can implement sound policies and procedures to prevent or respond to sexual abuse.

Silver Lakes Association is also in the process of creating policies and procedures to address abuse. Legal helped SLA in this process and expects other associations will follow suit.

First Baptist Church, Cedar City

Legal continues to monitor the legal battle involving First Baptist Church of Cedar City. To date, the case remains unresolved. However, according to the parties, they reached a resolution in which the church property will be transferred to the UISBC or Color Country. The hope is that a new church will be planted, and the UISBC or Color Country will transfer the property to the newly formed church. It helps that the previous pastor moved out of state, and the remaining church body called Scott Maxwell as the new pastor.

While we hope the case will be resolved soon, we are concerned about the amount of time this is taking. We spoke with the attorneys in April about the above resolution and still have not seen a court order putting it in place. There are various legal issues that could complicate the matter if this case is not resolved, such as the new church not holding title to the building, and we may need to intervene in order to protect the new church.

Our desire is to let the current parties finish the case because that is the fastest, easiest solution. But if the matter continues to drag, it may be wise to intervene and force a resolution. We will continue to push the attorneys to finish the case, but we want you to be fully aware in case we think it is necessary to get involved.

Missions and Partnership Report
Gary McKean, Coordinator
September 2023

Missions and partnerships go hand in hand. Missions are an active expression of partnership in ministry. In each of the four Gospels Jesus gives us our commission. In Matthew 28 it is what is commonly called the Great Commission; in Luke 24:48, we are to be "witnesses of these things"; in John 15:27, "You will testify"; and in Mark 16:15, "Go into all the world and Preach the Gospel". Notably, Mark 16:20 tells of our missions partnership with the Lord, "And they went everywhere, while the Lord worked with them, and confirmed the Word by the signs that followed."

We relish receiving and sharing reports from those churches that go on mission and their stories of how the Lord worked with them and the signs that followed, truly these are tales of partnership: the partnership with the Lord, the partnership of the church with the mission team, the partnership amongst the team members, and the partnership with those they serve. Please encourage our churches to share their mission stories.

Our role in missions is to assist churches who contemplate doing missions. There is much to consider when doing missions. We can assist with materials and guidelines for going on mission, the type of mission, spiritual and other preparations for the mission, missions contacts, and needs, and what happens after a mission. Another way is through a UISBC missions fund designated for churches going on mission. Recently, we received our first church request for financial assistance, and we were pleased to be able to do so.

Church-to-church partnerships are a great way for churches to go on mission. The church-to-church partnership initiative with Georgia churches continues to prove very fruitful. Some churches in such partnerships are joining with their partners to do missions. By the way, church-to-church partnerships between churches within Utah and Idaho would be wonderful. Just think about it, fellowship, prayer, missions, and Kingdom building together as fellow workers.

A vision team from north Georgia came to the Silver Lakes and Whispering Pines Associations in the Spring and we are seeing partnerships developing from that.

Your fellow worker.

Send Network
Send Utah Idaho Director/Send City Missionary Salt Lake City
Bobby Wood

Our entire Send Network Utah Idaho team has been working hard this year and are excited to give you a good report of the work God has been doing throughout our two-state convention. Bobby Wood is the Send Network Director for Utah Idaho and Send City Missionary for Salt Lake City. Mike Palmer is the Church Planting Leader for Utah Idaho. Richard Dugger is our Idaho Church Planting Catalyst. Michael Cooper is our Utah Church Planting Catalyst, and Leonardo López is the Send Español champion for the West.

This has been an incredible year for church planting throughout Utah and Idaho. For starters, churches planted in the last ten years have collectively baptized over 150 people! Redemption Hill Church in Eagle Mountain baptized over 50 people already and have plans to baptize close to 70 people by the time the year is over! There is a growing sense that God is stirring up many people who are asking spiritual questions and exploring biblical Christianity on a regular basis.

This past summer we had 35 students from all over the country come out and share the Gospel and learn how to be a missionary in Salt Lake City working in Ogden, Logan, Salt Lake, and Provo. GenSend Salt Lake City led North American cities in the amount of Gospel conversations that were had throughout the summer. Several of those students moved to the area and started working on new church planting teams. Pray for us next year as we are praying to have 54 students in the greater Salt Lake metro area and another brand-new group of students in Boise.

Five brand new churches have launched this year. Those would be Kings Cross Church in Farmington, UT, Valley Light Church in West Valley City, UT, Iglesia de Biblica de Ogden, Ogden, UT, Community Bible Outreach in Nampa, ID, and Redemption Church North Davis in Kaysville, UT. We also have an additional four guys who are attending a church planting assessment this Fall.

One of the more creative approaches to church planting is in St. George, Utah. We are working with Mt. Airy Baptist Church in the upstate of South Carolina who are mobilizing a number of churches to pray, dream, mobilize, and send church planters to Southern Utah. This new partnership is in its infancy right now. So, please pray for this work and that it may be a possible model to help us plant churches in different regions throughout Utah and Idaho.

Women's Missions and Ministries Report
Mary McFarling, Women's Network Leader

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." Romans 15:13 NIV

The UISBC Women's Network exists to encourage and strengthen women as they grow in their relationship with God and serve him. And it is my prayer that women across Utah and Idaho experience joy and peace as they trust in our God so that the hope they know in their lives overflows into the lives of others.

This has been a recurring theme with women's events this year in churches across our convention. The UISBC Women's Network has assisted with these events by providing funds, resources, speakers and or by promoting church and association led events. "Living Hope" at Redemption Church in Ogden, Utah reached out to ladies across the Salt Lake valley with speaker Kathy Litton. The Treasure Valley annual Women's retreat focused on "Finding True Joy". Mountain View Baptist Church in Layton, Utah reached out to unchurched women in a conference titled, "Joy in the Journey". First Southern Baptist Church in Washington, Utah invited women from throughout the convention to join them in "Soaring with Prayer". Partnering with associations and regional events planned by churches provides opportunities to touch more women across our states as we combine resources.

Events sponsored by UISBC Women's Network have included: "Overflowing Hope", a one-day conference at Canyons Church where women were encouraged to live out their hope in Christ by learning to share hope with others, to share hope with Salt Lake City through their gifts to the Baptist Concern Center, and to share hope with the world through Missions Discipleship with programs and resources from Woman's Missionary Union.

The annual Women's Conference themed, "Joyful in Hope," October 26th at Calvary Baptist Church in Idaho Falls featured Connie Dixon, National President of Women's Missionary Union and IMB missionary D.B. as well as breakout sessions to encourage women including, "Sharing Grace with LDS" and "Finding Joy in Waiting" led by Janis Jelke of Idaho Falls, "Abounding in Hope", and "Inroads for the Gospel in Ukraine".

The number of events sponsored by churches and open to others in the area has grown and has expanded our ability to connect women. But, knowing that many are unable to attend events leads to a continuing desire to discover the best avenues of connection through social media, online options, and other methods. Discovering who the women's leaders are in our churches is an ongoing project. Being able to connect with the leaders of women will help to discover needs, evaluate what we are doing, and improve ministry. Identifying leaders will also help to meet the current need to expand our leadership team to include a representative from each association.

I am grateful for opportunities to connect with leaders at Lifeway, NAMB, and WMU and with other state women's missions and ministries leaders at national events and online for valuable training, encouragement and sharing. In January, I attended the National WMU Executive Board business meeting and training. In February, I was invited to participate in a three-day online focus group conducted by Lifeway Research as they sought to learn more about women's ministries in churches and state conventions across the country.

In June, I, along with Sonia & Rafael Gutierrez from Canyons Church and Sonya Usher and Cindy Young from FBC West Valley, attended the national WMU Annual Meeting and SBC Annual Meeting in June. A grant from the WMU Foundation assisted with expenses.

May the women of UISBC be filled with hope and joy, fueled by the power of the Holy Spirit that is not simply enough to meet the needs of their lives but that they become carriers of hope to the world.

The vision of the UISBC Women's Missions and Ministries Network is: "to be fully ALIVE in Christ, completely devoted to Him, Giving completely of ourselves for the advancement of God's Kingdom."
